

NEWS FROM THE TAWD VALE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

8TH JANUARY 2003

- 2 new members of the committee attended their first meeting, Steve Lewis ACC Scouts and Ann Parker DC Picton.
- The site has coped well during the closed season with no vandalism.
- A great number of trees blew down during the winter and have now been removed. There is an amount of wood round the site for use by youngsters.
- There was some flooding around the chapel area.
- Drainage ditches need attention.
- Chris Foskett is now responsible for the Financial paperwork on site.
- Ian Chapman is to be asked to look at funding for the drainage work on the site which will cost in the region of £10,000.00
- Health and Safety are still to visit.
- Rock and River will continue to provide activities on the site 2003. Scouters must book with Rock and River when they book their site.
- Scouters who wish to use facilities only with their own instructors need to book the time and date with Rock and River so that there are no clashes.
- Competence certificates/authorisation will have to be produced and seen by either the site warden or designated person before the Scouter uses the facility.
