

SPLAT 2023

16th June to 18th June
Tawd Vale Adventure Centre

Welcome to SPLAT 2023!

Where Scouts Play, Laugh, Achieve, Together...
SPLAT is an action-packed fun camp for members of the Scout section on Merseyside.

*

This event will bring together Scout troops from across the county to take part in adventurous activities, make new friends and above all have fun
- Scouts Push Limits At Tawd...

*

The camp aims to deliver new activities as well as established favourites. It would be fantastic to see Scouts making new friends, badge swapping is a great way to do this! If leaders could support this by providing spare badges to swap and encourage scouts to take part, then that would be appreciated!

*

Sunday will see the whole camp come together for a new, exciting and colourful party event called Trooping the Colours! (Details Overleaf).

All Troops Must Comply With All Current Scout Association Rules And Guidelines.

All Troops Taking Part In The Camp Must Have With Them A Leader Who Possesses A Relevant Nights Away Permit

Sunday at SPLAT - Trooping of the Colours!

This event will see the whole camp parade through Tawd Vale in a carnival style party parade!

Troops are encouraged to design their own camp banner or flag to carry in the parade (homemade, not parade flags).

Scouts can also build a carriage to transport a scout or their leader along the parade. There will be prizes for the best ones!

Scouts are welcome to dress up, use whistles, play instruments, make noise, sing songs & have fun.

This unique parade will include a carnival paint throwing activity covering the Troops in Colour !!

Scouts & adults are encouraged to wear old white T-shirts, to allow colours to show up well.

NOTE: All paint is powdered, bio-degradable and designed for this purpose. Leaders are encouraged to keep a supply of wet wipes handy for scouts to clean up afterwards.
